

Unit10. 郵便局にて At the Post Office (1)

(1) Useful expressions

Send a package.

Express mail.

Express delivery.

Declaration of contents

I need some stamps for this card.

(2) Vocabulary

- Post Office (noun) -
 - Mail office; a government department or agency handling the transmission of mail.
 - Example: Lisa asked to me to mail her letters to the nearest post office.
- Stamp (noun) -

- printed paper affixed in evidence that a tax has been paid
- Example: I saw several kinds of stamps at the post office yesterday.
- Package (noun) -
 - a wrapped or boxed thing or group of things; parcel
 - Example: For destinations overseas we send all packages by Air Mail.

(3) Conversation

Anne is at the post office. She is talking to the clerk.

Clerk: May I help you?

Anne: Yes, please. I need some stamps for this card.

Clerk: Let me weigh it for you.

That is one dollar and fifty cents.

Anne: Okay. Thank you.

Clerk: Do you need anything else?

Anne: Yes, please. I also need to send this package.

Clerk: Let me weigh it for you.

That is three dollars and ten cents.

Anne: Here you are.

That is four dollars and sixty cents.

Clerk: Thank you. Is that all?

Anne: Yes it is. Thanks for all your help.

(4) Activity

At the Post Office

Anne bought her mother a cookbook for her birthday.

She also sent her a birthday card.

Think of some suitable presents for some of your friends and family members.

Think about what they like or what they need.

Write your ideas in the chart.

Person	Present
--------	---------