

Unit13. 部屋を借りる

Renting a Room / Apartment (2)

(1) Conversation

Finding a Roommate

A: Hi, Steve.

B: Hey, Jet. What's up?

A: Do you know anyone who's looking for a place to live?
One of our roommates is moving out.

B: As a matter of fact, I do.

My friend Michelle needs a place. How much is the rent?

(Steve asks questions about the room and roommates).

B: I'll let her know and give her your number.

A: Thanks Steve. Oh wait! Is there anything I should know about Michelle?

B: Like what?

A: Well, is she a heavy drinker?

Our last roommate got drunk all the time and caused a lot of problems.

(Jet asks questions about the potential roommate Michelle)

A: That's all I need to know.

I'll talk it over with my roommates.

Thanks again Steve. See you later.

B: See you Jet.

(2) Activity

Discussion:

Where do you live?

Do you live in a home-stay or in shared accommodation?

Who do you live with?

Are you happy where you live? Why or why not?

Who did you live with in your country?

Brainstorm:

What do you think about shared accommodation?

What are the pros and cons of shared accommodation?
