Modern life has setbacks and drawbacks and on the bright side its addicting pursuit for profit. Firstly, with advanced technology, it is creating a love for the quick results in profit.

With technology on the cutting edge, we are pushed to go with the faster more efficient results of our performance, so we double efforts similar to electronic speed.

Secondly, while enjoying rapidity of electronic assistance in jobs, we need money for them to continue; so, we work even harder. It is a cycle of mutual assistance and man pushes himself harder.

Thirdly, people suffer from depression, insomnia, a physical disability as a result. Man turns to drugs, anti-killer meds, even extra-marital affairs to pacify needs for peace and serenity. Man needs to rethink and give alternatives in living fast-paced, such as trips outside cities, a regular church attendance, a weekend get-away, to live a well-adjusted life.
