B: It combines ease and efficiency. By placing this control here, next to the seat, we help the operator conserve energy and focus his attention on quality control. See this slides? This feature is a first in the industry and we're confident that we're setting a new standard for others to follow.

A: Has the new design significantly affected the price?

B: That's the beauty of it! We're so confident that this model will take off that we're willing to absorb some short-term losses so that we can offer it at the same low price as last year's model.

A: Quite impressive! I'll show this specs to our acquisition department and let you know their verdict.
