

Beginner Present Perfect Tense

We use the Present Perfect to say that an action happened at an unspecified time before now. The exact time is not important.

You CANNOT use the Present Perfect with time expressions such as; "yesterday," "one year ago," "last week," "when I was a child," "when I lived in Japan," "at that moment," "that day" or "one day."

With Non-continuous Verbs and some non-continuous uses of Mixed Verbs, we use the Present Perfect to show that something started in the past and has continued up until now. "For five minutes," "for ten years," "for two weeks" and "since Tuesday" are all durations which can be used with the Present Perfect.

Example: I have had a cold for two weeks.
 She has been in England for six months.
 Toya has loved chocolate since she was a little girl.
