sometimes we put it further into the past so the exact meaning is easier to understand. Think about this sentence:

Mary said that shewent to the cinema.

CORE ED Stage 6 Lesson

Here, we don't know whether Mary said "I go to the cinema" or "I went to the cinema". In other words, we don't know if she was speaking

For example:

(Direct speech) Mary said "John will go to London".

(Indirect speech) Mary said that John would go to London.

CORE ED Stage 6 Lesson

You are reporting what Mary said in the past, but the word "would" refers to a future action.
