- No. 4 Do you think that, in the future, more countries will produce genetically modified foods?

One day, an elderly couple was coming home from the supermarket. They were pushing their bicycles, both of which were loaded with groceries. The man looked like he was struggling with the heavy load, and his wife remarked that the supermarket was too far away. The next day, the woman was in front of the couple's home. She looked pleased to find an advertisement for a supermarket that offered a delivery service. The ad said that groceries could be ordered online. A week later, the woman was ordering some vegetables from the supermarket's website. Her husband seemed to be looking forward to the deliver of the vegetables. A few days later, the woman was starting to prepare dinner. The vegetables had arrived, and the man was taking them out of the box. He looked disappointed as he told his wife that the vegetables were not fresh.

No. 1 I'd be thinking, "We need to contact the online supermarket and complain. These vegetables don't look like the ones on the website. It's not right for them to
