SAMPLE ANSWERS

One day, a young man was at home with his parents. He was showing them a flier with information about renting an exhibition space. The young man asked his parents if they would lend him the money to rent the space, and they agreed to do so. The day before the exhibition, the young man was busy preparing. He was hanging his photos on the walls and putting price tags below them. He imagined someone buying one of his photos at the exhibition. On the first of the exhibition, the young man was outside the exhibition space. He was handing out fliers about the exhibition to people walking by, and some people had gone inside to see his photos. After the
