One evening, a retired couple was having a barbecue at their new home. They invited some of their new friends over to join them. Everyone enjoyed talking and eating while looking at the fantastic view. Later that evening, the couple got a call from their daughter in Japan. She had some great news, they were going to become grandparents. The couple was excited. The next year, the couple traveled back to Japan to see their grandchild. When they arrived at the airport, their daughter and her husbands were waiting, and they met their grandchild for the first time. The daughter welcomed them back. A few weeks later, the couple was packing their things and preparing to go back. The woman held the baby's hand and began to feel sad. She realized that because they now lived overseas, they wouldn't see their grandchild again for some time. She asked her husband
