noun to tell you more about it.
Adjectives never change. They are never plural.
For example: -
This is a nice cake.
Adjectives go before their nouns.
They're nice people.

Now learn some adjectives that describe what people or places are like:

Adjectives for people and places - appearances
beautiful 😊	pretty 😊	ugly 😞

Adjectives for personality (people) or characteristics (places and things)
lovely 😊	nice 😊	OK 😐	all right 😐	horrible 😞	terrible 😞	awful 😞

REMEMBER:

 Remember the rules: when to use a or an, this is changed by the adjective.

You use a when the noun you are referring to or the adjective that describes it begins with a consonant.

You use an when the noun you are referring to or the adjective that describes it begins with a vowel.

For example:

It's a car.

It's a new car.

It's an old car.

Naturally Speaking
