development of lifestyle patterns for long term weight loss is recommended.

Excess weight is becoming a serious problem worldwide and dealing with it has become a multi billion dollar industry with all types of so called 'miracle cures' on offer, some really work while others offer some help, but most do not help at all. A respectable weight loss routine will be to illustrate the necessity of fat loss, maybe being the key to lasting weight loss. After all, weight takes time to accumulate and will also take time to lose, if done safely. Other than carrying out some investigation of your own on the subject, seek medical counsel, preferably an individual who specializes in weight loss. Always be careful where you spend your money as not all the diets are worth pursuing and they may also make you sad as well.

All the same, it is important to bear in mind that there is some risk with weight loss plans that rely on a strict adherence to rapid fat loss. Starvation type diets programs may reduce weight, but they can also seriously reduce body tissue, such as muscle, that is important for the body's well-being. It is more important, and ultimately more effective, if you reduce body fat which will assist to guarantee a long term reduction in overall weight.

Questions 14 - 16 are based on the following report

Food products account for the largest portion of our agricultural exports, although it is traditionally thought that pesticides and other agricultural chemicals are in the lead. The value of food product exports has increased in recent years, with the increased interest among consumers in more exotic food products. Our growers have responded to the demand and we have established one million hectares as a special development region for these products. Our low night time temperatures combined with the fact that we have little rain and plenty of sun in the daytime. gives us a competitive edge over growers in other regions.

Our exports of native tropical fruits and root vegetables have increased from less than 2% to more than 5% of total agricultural exports in the past two years and growth is expected to continue. But we continue to anticipate new food trends and will be ready to
