In Part VII you will read passages in the form of letters, ads, memos, faxes, schedules, etc. The reading section has a number of single passages and 4 double passages. You will be asked 2-4 questions about each single passage, and 5 questions for each double passage. Sometimes you will be asked for specific details. Other times you will be asked about what the passage implies. In the paired passages you will also be asked to make connections between the two related texts. On the real test you will not have time to read every word. You need to practice scanning and reading quickly for details.

You are going to read some reading passages, each with 2-5 questions. For each question, choose the answer which you think fits best according to the text.

To whom it may concern,

I am very pleased to write on behalf of James Metta, with whom I have worked closely for 3 consecutive years at Mapleton University. Mr. Metta has all of the qualities that are central to being a high-quality employee: he is energetic, intelligent, ambitious, organized, and likable.

Over the course of the last two semesters, James worked as my classroom and technology assistant and I came to know him very well. We had the unique challenge of creating and piloting two brand new courses which involved a mixture of computer

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to request that you discontinue my monthly vitamin shipments as of today 1/27/2010. Since payments are billed automatically to my credit card, my account balance is currently paid in full. Therefore, I expect my account to be closed immediately and there will be no additional fees. I would like a written confirmation of this request along with a current statement within 30 days or I will be forced to take legal action.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
