

IELTS Speaking Lesson 13

PART 2 QUESTIONS

- Describe a popular meal from your country that you like to eat.

You should say

- what the meal is
- why it's popular in your country
- and why you like it.

Describe your favorite person in the family
You should say

- Who is your favorite person in the family?
- Is this person important for the family?
- What impact does this person have on you?

Describe a character in a movie

- What was the name of the character, and who played it?
- What impact did the character have on you?
- What did you learn from this character?

How would you like to spend your ideal weekend (ideal means best weekend)

- With whom would you like to spend your ideal weekend?
- What would you like to eat on your ideal weekend?
- How much money would you be ready to spend on your ideal weekend?

.

Construct your own house

- If you ever get a chance, would you make your own house?
- What kind of interior would you use in the house?
- What location would you choose for your dream house?

Describe a school you attended

- What was the name of the school and where was it located?
- How many faculty members and pupils were there in the school?
- Why did you like the school?

PART 3: Children's education

- Compare the (similarities and) differences between how children learn and how adults learn.
- (Similar to above) Compare the (similarities and) differences between how children and adults learn new skills.
- Compare the different attitudes of children and adults towards learning (or, towards education).
- How do you think a teacher for children (e.g., primary school children) should teach differently to a teacher of adults?

Educational methods

- Compare education via the internet with face-to-face education (in classrooms).
- What different kinds of training should be given to different types of people? (Examples of different types of people - male and female; different educational levels; different intelligence levels; physically handicapped & normal; rural & urban; [and different social classes])
- Do you think Western educational methods and educational methods in China are the same?

International & domestic travel

- Compare travelling internationally and travelling within China.
- If a Chinese family migrates to a different country such as Canada or Australia, do you think the education of the children will be a problem?