

For Teachers: Please read each dialogue to the student as well as the titles of the pieces. In this part, do not read the question, situation or answers to the question to the student. They are here for your review. Please have the student read the answer rather than merely saying the number. After each question, please wait for the student to answer the question before continuing.

Part 3 – Real Life

LP1E 12-1

In this part, you will hear five passages, (G) through (K). The passages represent real-life situations. Each message will have one question, No. 25 through No. 29. Before each passage, you will have 10 seconds to read the situation and question written in your test booklet. After you hear the message, you will have 10 seconds to choose the best answer and mark your answer on your answer sheet. The passage will be given only once. Now, let's begin.

(G) You have 10 second to read the situation and Question No. 25.

Thank you for calling CookMeister. If you wish to report a problem with a CookMeister appliance purchased within the last two weeks, please take it back to the store where you purchased it. You can receive a full refund. If you are experiencing mechanical problems during the one-year warranty period,

Welcome everyone. There are a few things you need to take care of before classes start next week. First, you must complete online registration for classes at the computer center in Reynolds Hall. International students will need to drop off a copy of their visa at the registrar's office before doing this. Once you've registered for classes, you'll be able to get your student ID card.

Undergraduates can get theirs in Room 24 of Stanley Hall. Graduate students can get theirs on the second floor of Butler Hall. OK, let's talk about credit requirements now.

Now mark your answer on your answer sheet.

No. 26

Situation: You are a Japanese student who has just enrolled in a master's program at a U.S. university. You have not registered for classes yet. You are at an orientation session.

Question: What should you do first?

- 1 Go to the second floor of Butler Hall.
- 2 Collect your ID card from Room 24 of Stanley Hall.
- 3 Register online at the computer center.
- 4 Take a copy of your visa to the registrar's office.

(I) You have 10 second to read the situation and Question No. 27.

Welcome to Primrose Farm. If you're feeling energetic, why not join our walking tour of the farm? It takes two and a half hours and starts in 10

Jacqueline's taking a nap right now. She'll probably sleep until about 2. I usually feed her around 3. There's a bottle of milk in the fridge. Just heat it in the microwave for one minute, but make sure it's not too hot before giving it to her. After that, maybe you could take her to the park. It's good for her to get
