

G3 Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #26

Story

Nowadays, many schools around the world keep animals such as rabbits and birds. They are often called school pets. Students take care of school pets, and by doing so they learn the importance of being kind to living things. Many people think that school pets help students to build good friendships with animals.

Vocabulary

around the world

take care of

learn

be kind to friendship

keep

by doing so importance

living things

Questions

1) What do many schools around the world do ?

They keep animals such as rabbits and birds.

2) What are animals kept at schools often called?

They are often called school pets.

3) What do students learn from school pets?

They learn the importance of being kind to living things.

4) How do students learn the importance of being kind to living things?

By taking care of school pets.

5) What do many people think of school pets?

They think school pets help students build good friendships with animals.

6) Does your school have any school pets?

Yes, we do. We have fish and a turtle.

7) What can you do to help take care of a pet?

I can feed it and wash it.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

8) What kind of pet would you like to have?

I would like to have a cat.

9) What else do you do at school to learn to be responsible?

I help clean the school and help prepare for school festivals.

10) Where else can you make friends with animals?

I can make friends with animals in the park.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community