

G3 Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #30

Story

These days, there are many foreign families living in Japan. The children of these families usually go to local schools. However, they sometimes have language problems when they begin to go to school. Some cities offer Japanese language classes, and in this way, they help foreign children do better in Japanese schools.

Vocabulary

these days

usually language

foreign local problems

Questions

1) Who are living in Japan these days?

There are many foreign families living in Japan.

2) Where do children of foreign families go to school?

They usually go to local schools.

3) What kind of problems do foreign children sometimes have?

They sometimes have language problems.

4) What do some cities offer?

They offer Japanese language classes.

5) What do the Japanese language classes do?

They help foreign children do better in Japanese schools.

6) Do you have any foreign friends?

Yes, I do./No, I don't.

7) Would you like to live in a foreign country?

Yes, I would./No, I wouldn't.

8) How do you study English?

I take English lessons and I watch English programs on TV.

9) What kind of problems would you lived in a foreign country?

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

I would have trouble getting directions if I was lost.

10) What ways can we overcome language barriers?

Cellphone apps can translate simply sentences.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community