

G3 Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #33

Story

Students have many chances to use the Internet in class. For example, they collect information to write reports. However, some of this information is not true. Many students check online information carefully, and by doing so, they are able to write better reports. There will probably be more classes about using online information.

Vocabulary

chance

information

true

carefully

probably for example

report

online

be able to Questions

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

1) Where do students have chances to do in class?

They have many chances to use the Internet.

2) What kind of things can students use the Internet for?

They can collect information to write reports.

3) What problem is there with online information?

Some of this information is not true.

4) How are many students able to write better reports?

By checking online information carefully.

5) What will their probably be in the future?

There will probably be more classes about using online information.

6) Have you collected online information to write a report?

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

7) What website is good for online information?

Wikipedia is a good site for online information.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

8) How often do you write reports for class?

I write a report for my classes once a month.

9) How are some other ways we can write better reports?

By using a good outline.

10) What was the last report you wrote about?

It was about my winter vacation.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community