

G3 Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #36

Story

In the past, many students did not know what they wanted to do after finishing school. This was because most students did not have experience in the workplace. Now, many schools let students get work experience, and by doing so, they help students plan for their futures. Student work programs have become popular.

Vocabulary

in the past

workplace

plan

become popular

experience

work experience

work

Questions

1) What didn't students know in the past?

They did not know what they wanted to do after finishing school.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

2) What didn't most students have?

They did not have experience in the workplace.

3) How do many schools help students plan for their futures?

They let students get work experience.

4) What have become popular?

Student work programs have become popular.

5) Have you ever participated in a student work program?

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

6) Do you think student work programs are a good idea?

Maybe. I am worried companies make take advantage of students for cheap labor.

7) What kind of job would you like to do after finishing school?

I would like to be a teacher.

8) What kind of things do you think you could learn in a student work program?

A student could learn how to work in an office.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

9) What other ways could schools help students plan for their futures?

They could get companies to come to the school to talk about their work.

10) What advantage do student work programs have for companies?

The students will already be trained when they become real employees.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community