

G3 Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #37

Story

Recently, more car companies have started making electric cars. Electric cars do not make the air dirty, so they are getting a lot of attention. Although these cars can be more expensive than cars that use gasoline, many people are interested in having one. Electric cars may become quite common in the future.

Vocabulary

electric

expensive

become common although

gasoline

quite

Questions

- 1) What have more car companies done recently?

They have started making electric cars.

2) Why are electric cars getting a lot of attention?

Because they do not make the air dirty.

3) Are electric cars cheap?

No, they can be more expensive than cars that use gasoline.

4) Are electric cars popular?

Yes, many people are interested in having one.

5) What may electric cars become?

They may become quite popular in the future.

6) Have you ever ridden in an electric car?

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

7) How can you tell the difference between an electric car and a gasoline car?

Electric cars are quiet.

8) Would you buy an electric car?

Yes, I would./No, I wouldn't.

9) Are there any disadvantages to electric cars?

Yes, they can't travel far and they take a long time to charge.

This document is for use in eTOC training sessions, use outside of eTOC is strictly prohibited.

10) What are some good things about electric cars?

They are clean and they can reduce climate change.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community