Teacher's Script

Questions 1 through 3 refer to the following telephone message.

Hello, Ms. Parker. This is William from Greenfield Event Catering. I'm calling to confirm the details for your company's annual dinner this Friday. We have you scheduled for 120 guests at the Riverside Banquet Hall, with service starting at 7 p.m. The menu will feature a mixed green salad, your choice of grilled salmon or roasted chicken, and a vegetarian pasta option. Dessert will be assorted mini cheesecakes and fruit tarts. Our staff will arrive at the venue by 5:30 to set up tables, decorations, and the buffet. Please note that we'll be bringing our own serving equipment and linens, so there's no need for you to provide anything. If you need to make any last-minute changes, please call me before 3 p.m. on Thursday so we can adjust our plans accordingly. We look forward to making your event a success.

Questions 7 through 9 refer to the following company meeting.

Good morning, everyone. I want to begin by congratulating the marketing team on the success of last month's product launch. Sales exceeded our projections by nearly 20 percent, thanks to their creative campaign and everyone's hard work. Now, we need to focus on the next phase—expanding into the regional market. Over the next two months, our sales representatives will be visiting major cities to introduce our products to new retailers. In addition, our website will be updated with location-specific promotions to Questions 10 through 12 refer to the following public service announcement.

Attention residents: This Saturday, the city will be conducting its annual emergency preparedness drill. Beginning at 9 a.m., sirens will sound throughout the downtown area for approximately three minutes. This is only a test, so there's no need to take shelter. The drill is intended to help residents recognize the sound of the emergency warning system and to ensure that all sirens are functioning properly. City staff will also be handing out informational brochures at the community center, outlining evacuation routes and safety procedures in the event of severe weather or other emergencies. We encourage everyone to stop by, pick up a copy, and ask questions. Remember, being prepared can make all the difference in a real emergency. For more information, visit the city's official website or call the emergency management office at 555-2147. Thank you for your cooperation and participation.

10. What will happen at 9 a.m. on Saturday?
11. Where can residents get more information?
12. What is the purpose of the drill?

Questions 16 through 18 refer to the following workplace announcement.

Good afternoon, team. I'm pleased to announce that starting next month, our company will be switching to a flexible scheduling system. Under this plan, employees can choose to begin their workday anytime between 7 a.m. and 10 a.m., as long as they complete their required eight hours. This change is intended to help staff better manage personal responsibilities, such as family care or commuting during off-peak hours. Department managers will coordinate with each of you to finalize schedules and ensure that adequate coverage is maintained throughout the day. Please note that attendance at scheduled meetings remains mandatory, regardless of start time. We will review the effectiveness of this program after three months, and adjustments will be made as needed. Your feedback will be an important part of the evaluation process, so please share your experiences with your supervisor.

our way inside, you'll notice the ornate plasterwork on the ceiling, which was hand-carved by artisans brought in from Italy. The theater originally seated over 1,200 guests and was the first building in the city to have air conditioning. In the 1950s, it shifted from live stage performances to showing films, and it quickly became the most popular cinema in town. After falling into disrepair in the 1980s, a local preservation group raised funds for a complete restoration, which took nearly four years to finish. Today, the Maplewood hosts a mix of independent films, concerts, and special events, and it's known for its excellent acoustics and comfortable seating. If you'd like to learn more about upcoming shows, stop by the ticket booth in the lobby or visit our website.

Questions 22 through 24 refer to the following business announcement.

This is a reminder to all staff that our annual performance review process will begin next Monday. Each employee will receive an email with a link to the self-evaluation form, which should be completed and submitted within one week. After that, managers will schedule individual review meetings to discuss achievements, areas for improvement, and goals for the coming year. This year, we are placing special emphasis on teamwork and cross-department collaboration, so please be prepared to talk about examples of how you've contributed to group projects. Your feedback on company policies and resources will also be welcome during these discussions. The human
