Questions 9–12 refer to the following article.

Business travel has become increasingly complex in recent years, with companies trying to balance cost efficiency with employee comfort. Many firms are turning to specialized agencies that negotiate lower hotel rates and flexible airfare options. These services are especially valuable to smaller companies, which may not have the bargaining power of large corporations. By outsourcing travel arrangements, businesses can save both time and money, while still ensuring that employees are _____ cared for.

9. (A) careful
(B) properly
(C) considerate
(D) precise
