Dear Sarah,

This email confirms that your order of 45 crates of glassware has been processed and scheduled for shipment. The goods will depart from our Newark facility on September 18 and are expected to arrive at your Portland warehouse by September 24. Please note that delivery requires a signature upon receipt.

An invoice has been attached for your records. Kindly review the payment terms, which specify settlement within 30 days of delivery. If you encounter any issues with documentation, contact our billing department at billing@dunhamlogistics.com.

Also, I'd like to remind you that fragile items such as these are insured under our standard carrier liability. However, we encourage your warehouse team to inspect each crate upon arrival and report damages within 48 hours.

Thank you for choosing Dunham Logistics. We look forward to serving your business needs again.

Sincerely,
Martin Lopez

Community Bank Expands Microloan Program for Local Entrepreneurs

In an effort to stimulate small business growth, Harbor Community Bank announced yesterday that it will significantly expand its microloan program. Initially launched in 2018, the program provides small loans—ranging from $2,000 to $15,000—to entrepreneurs who may not qualify for traditional bank financing.

Bank officials stated that the program has already supported more than 300 local businesses, from neighborhood cafés to start-up tech firms. “We believe that small businesses are the backbone of our economy,” said CEO Laura Kim. “By offering accessible financing, we’re helping hardworking individuals turn

The expansion will increase the annual fund by 40 percent, allowing the bank to serve at least 150 additional businesses in the coming year. Community leaders praised the initiative, noting that microloans often lead to job creation and stronger neighborhood economies.

Industry analysts also pointed out that while microloans carry higher administrative costs for banks, they build long-term customer relationships. Borrowers who succeed often become loyal clients who later require larger financial services.

With the expansion, Harbor Community Bank hopes to attract new partners, including local chambers of commerce and nonprofit organizations, to extend outreach to underrepresented groups.

Subject: Mandatory Cybersecurity Training

As part of our ongoing efforts to strengthen data security, all employees are required to complete an online training module titled Protecting Company Data. The training must be completed by March 15, 2025. Employees who fail to complete the training will temporarily lose access to their company email accounts until the requirement is met.

The training lasts approximately 90 minutes and can be paused and resumed at any time. Employees may access it via the company intranet under “Employee Learning.” Upon completion, a certificate will be issued, which should be uploaded to the HR portal.

Supervisors are expected to remind their team members of this deadline and to provide flexibility in scheduling so that all employees can complete the training during work hours. Employees who encounter technical issues should contact the IT help desk at extension 3324 or send an email to support@keystone-tech.com.

We appreciate your cooperation in keeping our company safe from cyber threats.

Dear Mr. Reed,

Thank you for your prompt reply regarding our delayed order. While the delay has caused some inconvenience, I appreciate the clear explanation and the offer of compensation.

We do not need the temporary chairs, as most of our staff are currently working from home several days a week, which has reduced the immediate need for additional seating. However, I will gladly accept the waiver of delivery fees and the 10% discount on our next purchase.

Please ensure that delivery is completed by March 10 as indicated. We are planning to have all staff return to the office by mid-March, and we would like the new chairs in place before then.

Sincerely,
Andrea Sullivan
Office Manager

Internal Analysis Memo

From: Finance & Strategy Team

Date: April 7, 2025

To: Executive Board

Overall Q1 2025 revenue rose by 7% compared to the same period last year, primarily driven by strong growth in Computer Accessories and Smart Home

Products. Both categories benefited from increased consumer demand for remote working tools and home automation.

While Home Appliances grew steadily by 16%, the most concerning development is the 11% decline in Mobile Devices. This category has traditionally accounted for the largest share of sales, but its proportion fell from 40% in Q1 2024 to 34% in Q1 2025. Contributing factors include intensified competition from overseas brands, delayed product launches, and a decline in average unit prices.

Other Electronics also dropped significantly (-25%), but because this category represents only 3% of total sales, the impact is minimal.

Recommendations:

1. Expedite the release of the mid-range smartphone currently in
