8 Over the past century, Japan has urbanized rapidly. These changes have been highly 9 beneficial, especially in terms of the economy, convenience, and the environment.

10 First, urbanization is the driving force behind Japan's economic growth. Millions of city 11 dwellers provide the enormous workforce necessary to staff factories and offices that are the 12 backbone of Japan's economy. Additionally, urban construction projects have contributed 13 greatly to the economic development.

14 Urbanization has also made people's lives more convenient. Urbanites have better 15 access to stores, public transportation, and a host of other things that make life easier.
16 Additionally, Internet access is better in cities, so people there can easily obtain the information 17 that is so essential in today's society.

18 Many people believe cities are bad for the environment, when, in fact, the opposite is 19 true. Studies show urbanites drive less, live in smaller homes, and use less energy for heating
20 and cooling, which leads to less carbon production on a per capita basis. Green solution to
