Sample answer 答えを作るときの参考にして下さい。 : _ In certain countries, it is preferred that students should take a year off from studies after completing high school, prior to joining universities and during this period they are encouraged to work or to travel. Even though this seems to be a noble concept, it has its own advantages and disadvantages. _To begin with, a year off, after completing years of continuous school education is a welcome break for students and is well deserved too. In short, such breaks help the young minds in preparing for the much demanding university life. _In contrast, such activities have higher chances that the young minds might lose interest in learning or may get demotivated due to various reasons and might ultimately refrain from
