Sample answer 答えを作るときの参考にして下さい。 : Dress codes is a mark of discipline and learning to conform to rules. This curbs youth in living with society's norms. The age of school uniforms is the drawing out of teens to develop one's personality, making healthy, social connections. This prohibits the focus on excessive standards and undue social disparity. Secondly, uniforms can prevent them from distraction from their main focus: their studies. Fashion trends can easily lure them to climb to the ladder of greed and materialism. Thirdly, it calls for a permanent phase of living with parents that calls for moderation. This gives breathing space for parents in keeping up with the demands of personality change, tuitions fees, and preparation for savings for higher education. Parents need to plan. Nothing can be sadder
